PAINT & SIP PICNIC

As a way to relax and get a chance to hang out with our sisters before the semester starts, we met in Aggie Park to chat, paint, & enjoy great mocktails! The drink menu included virgin strawberry mojitos (lime-infused sprite with strawberries & mint), & virgin strawberry lemon margaritas (strawberry lemonade infused with lime) out of the cutest faux-glasses. The fan favorite painting was LeeAnne's rendition of a goldfish-shark hybrid, complete with rows of sharp teeth. No matter the skill level, we all had a great evening! "Paint & Sip was such a cute way to start out the semester! I loved getting to do some outdoorsy painting with all the girlies while we sipped on mocktails! Tati & the sisterhood committee made Aggie Park look so cute; they really slayed this event!" -LeeAnne Kong (Zeta Class)

OFFICIAL HOWDY WEEK EVENT

We had a great time getting to know PNMs at our first ever official Howdy Week event! Chatting over popsicles in Rudder Plaza was a great opportunity to meet tons of new girls. "I enjoyed it because the Actives approached me & really wanted to talk to me!" -Emily Baird (Theta Candidate Class) e-quad bannering!

BANNERING SHIFTS

During the first week of the semester, our Actives spent their time bannering to find PNMs! Geared up with sunscreen & lots of water, we put ourselves out there & had a blast handing out flyers.

"Listening to songs like 'Speed Drive' & 'The Man' while trying to yell for women in STEM was honestly the highlight of my first week. I loved spending time with my sisters being silly & having conversations with PNMs." -Katelyn Clark (Epsilon Class)

DRESS CODE WORKSHOP

The first Professional Development event of the semester taught sisters & our new Candidates about different types of dress. Although there were some technical difficulties, attendees powered through & had a fun time. A vicious game of Kahoot rewarded teams with the most dress code knowledge with squishy treats! "I loved my squishy guy that I got .. & my new favorite dress code is black tie!" - Anna Woodruff (Eta Class)

BRAZOS COUNTY FOOD BANK

Sisters went to the Brazos Valley Food Bank & volunteered alongside other student organizations. They helped organize materials & prepare for the food bank's programs where they help hand out necessities. "It was really cool to work alongside other TAMU organizations & it was so much fun because a lot of sisters showed up to help!" - Bella Nichols (Epsilon Class)

BID DAY, BEST DAY

As a great event to start candidacy season, Actives & Candidates got to enjoy yummy brunch food with their bid-day-buddies after receiving their bid day gifts! After eating brunch, everyone got to play fun games such as silent charades & hot potato picture. "Bid Day was such a great opportunity to let our future Theta class get to know more of the Actives & feel more as a part of A.O.E.! I had so much fun getting to know each Candidate a little better, and the Alice in Wonderland theme was such a cute way to celebrate one of our core recruitment events. The recruitment committee killed it!" -Tatiana Fern (Zeta Class) "It was so fun to get to meet more of the candidate class & even talk more with Actives! I'm so excited to get to know more of them as the semester continues!" -Kashala Monay (Zeta Class) "Bid Day is the best! The theme was super cute & it's always fun bonding and getting to know the future candidates!" -Kennedy Thrash (Zeta Class)

AGGIE PARK TAILGATE

We hosted a tailgate before Texas A&M played against ULM! Sisters brought food & games to play while we got excited for the football game. Everyone was vibing to the great music playing & the yummy food. After that, sisters got to enjoy watching the Texas Aggie football game together! Despite the rain delay, our team pulled out a win in the end, & we still all had a great time. "The sliders were delicious & I loved getting to play cornhole! The tailgate was awesome." -Gwyneth Svatek (Eta Cass)

CANDIDATE INITIATION

Getting to officially call PNMs 'Candidates' is such a special moment, & we value our rituals so much! Our rituals are what differentiates us from other organizations, & we appreciate everyone who helps keep our traditions alive. "This semester's candidate initiation was so fun! Actives dressed their best, as always, and Bella Ly performed some fun songs before it began. Seeing all the new candidates receive their carnations in all white really made me miss candidacy & reminded me of the fun memories made during those six weeks." -Jenna Beyer (Delta Class)

RECIPE OF THE MONTH: SIMPLE BURRATA

Burrata is an Italian fresh mozzarella cheese with a creamy interior. Pair it with fresh fruit (like peaches, melon, strawberries, or blackberries), tomatoes, herbs (like basil, oregano, or thyme), a drizzle of olive oil, and chunky sea salt. It can be eaten as an easy appetizer or a side salad. Don't want to eat it with a fork & knife? Next time, try scooping it up with sliced baguettes, crostini, or even just crackers. Thank you to Bella Ly (Delta Class) for this recommendation!

SISTER OF THE MONTH: GWYNETH SVATEK

This month, we recognize Gwyneth for going above & beyond as an Active! As part of Eta Class, it was her first recruitment as an Active, & she was the only non-officer to attend 5 of the 6 non-required recruitment events. On top of this, Gwyneth is active in the Discord, & even makes the time to see movies or go to football games with her sisters, no points attached. Thank you for your passion for friendship, & an extra congratulations to Gwyneth for being super (bass)!

JULY-SEPT. BIRTHDAYS

A very happy birthday to our Cancer, Leo, Virgo, & Libra sisters! Thank you for letting us keep you another year, & we hope you had the most special day of celebration.
